List any Qualifications, education, awards or community Involvement:

Current occupation/role and employer:

1. a) Describe your involvement in the Australian beef industry, including your connection to grassfed cattle production or a cattle levy-paying enterprise (max 300 words)*

Explain what you currently do and the nature and extent of your connection. Applicants from elsewhere in the supply chain should clearly explain their connection to grassfed producers.

1. b) What motivates you to contribute to grassfed cattle producer representation, and what do you believe are the most important issues facing producers? (max 250 words)*

2. Describe a situation where you demonstrated leadership by identifying an issue or opportunity and taking action. What did you do, who did you involve, what challenges did you encounter and what was the outcome? (max 250 words)*

3. Identify one issue or opportunity that you believe will significantly influence the Australian grassfed beef industry over the next five years. Why does it matter and what role should industry representation play in responding to it? (max 250 words)*

4. Describe how your involvement in agricultural networks or activities has enabled you to communicate industry issues to different audiences (max 250 words)*.

5. Describe how your profession, experience, unique location or distinctive views on the Australian beef industry would contribute to a credible, diverse and broad representative group of National Beef Leaders (max 250 words)*

5. Describe the networks and communication platforms you currently use to reach and engage people within and beyond agriculture, and how you could build this reach through the National Beef Leaders program (max 250 words)*.

6. Why do you want to participate in the National Beef Leaders program, and how would you use the experience to contribute to grassfed producer representation and the broader Australian beef industry? (max 250 words)*
